Venice, at the Catecumena, June 12, 1824.

Anna Maria Darfour, usually Anna Mora, Donna Affricana (African Lady), was accepted in this pious Institute of the Catecumena with her two young daughters, on October 10, 1822 and became Christian at about 21 years of age and unmarried by her own declaration. She was baptized today by me, the Prior Father Agostino Kvijungich. Godmother at the Holy Font by proxy of H.E. the Marquise D'Onica, Great Cross of the order of the Saints Maurice and Lazar, and of Savoy, Major General of His Sardinian Majesty's Militia, Inspector General of the Royal Carabinieri (riflemen), was Elena, the daughter of the late Girolamo Monferra, from Veneto and wife of Pietro Dufan, from Piedmont, living in Venice, in the Parish of S. Francesco of the vineyard, and employee of the Royal Imperial Finances in this royal city of Venice.

Said Anna Maria was confirmed on the following day by H.E. the most Rev. Mgr. Giovanni Ladislao Pyrker the Patriarch of Venice. The above mentioned lady was godmother.

At the same time on the same day, 12th instant, the child named Rosina about 4 years of age and daughter of the above mentioned Donna African was baptized by me the Prior named above and was given the name of Ros Maria at the sacred baptismal font.

The Godmother at the sacred font, as ordered by Sig. Bernardino Drovetti son of the late Giorgio Consul General of France in Alexandria, Egypt; was Signora Elena, the daughter of the late Girolamo Monferra and wife of Sig. Pietro Dufan, from Piedmont, residing and employed as stated above.

On the same day, June 12, 1824, the full church services were performed for Maria Catterina, daughter of the above Donna Africana, since this child only was given the holy water of baptism in Trieste by a Priest as was becoming the faith of her standing. Assisting at the sacred baptismal ceremonies as ordered by Sig. Bernardino Drovetti of Barbania in Piedmont, the son of Sig. Giuseppe, the Signora Elena Monferra, daughter and wife of the above mentioned. The ceremonies were performed by the above named Prior.

Venice at the Catecumena, June 13, 1824 four.

Giovanni Antonio Lebolo, formerly Said more Affricano, was accepted into this pious house of the Catecumena on the 27th of March 1823, at about 11 years of age, to become a Christian. He was baptized today in the church of this pious institution of the Catecumena by me, Prior Agostino Kvijungich. Godfather at the sacred baptismal font was Sig. Antonio Lebolo a merchant and landowner and son of Pietro from Castellamonte, in Piedmont, and Marianna Meuta.

I, the undersigned, certify that I have copied faithfully from the book of Baptisms of the pious house of Catecumena the above baptism.

In Faith

From the Catecumena, June 13, 1824.

Father Agostino Kvijungich, Prior as above and with the seal of this pious institution.

Venice in the patriarchal Curia May 5, 1826
