

BOOK OF MORMON WAR CHAPTERS
ALMA 43-63

CHAPTER 43

1. Wars come because of pride. Alma 35:15, 43:6-8
2. Apostates are more wicked and have a murderous disposition. v 6
3. Look out for those who want to usurp "great power" by taking away your freedoms. v 8
4. We many have to stand alone in our defense of freedom. v 13
5. We must prepare ourselves for the "wars" we will fight. v 18
6. We must know what the enemy is doing (spies). v 23
7. We must keep close to the Lord and "inquire" of Him. v 23
8. We must develop our own strategy. v 30
9. We will be "inspired by a better cause" v 45
10. We must not be guilty of the first or second offense. v 46
11. What the Lord says we should fight for - Country, Families, Religion, Freedom. v 45-47
12. Numbers don't matter when you are on the Lords side. v 51
13. Good men are not interested in "body count". v 54

CHAPTER 44

1. God will support, keep, and preserve us as long as we are faithful. v4
2. God will give us extra physical strength. v5
3. Something is required of those who have broken the peace. v8
4. No compromise with principle. v 11
5. Forgive quickly. v 26

CHAPTER 45

1. This land is cursed for the unrighteous and blessed for the righteous. v 16
2. The 'WORD OF GOD' must be preached to keep the people going in the right direction. v 21

3. The proud always destroy the peace. v 24

CHAPTER 46

1. The proud will not have God to rule over them. v 1

2. There are always those that seek to have power over others. v 4

3. Members of the Church can be deceived. v 7

4. Men quickly forget their God. v 8

5. Even one wicked man can cause "great wickedness". v 9

6. Watch out for flattery and those who try to take away your freedoms. v 10

7. Thing to fight for - God, our religion, freedom, peace, wives, children. v. 12

8. Those that believe in these things must take a stand. v 21

9. We can use the events in the scriptures to strengthen us in our own cause. v 23

10. Those with strong feelings of liberty will do what is needed. v 28

11. Those who do not have a just cause will not hold firm. v 28

12. They have no feelings of loyalty. v 33

13. Treason is punishable by death. v 35

CHAPTER 47

1. People of many lands want peace. v 2

2. There are men who are "subtle to do evil". They have a mask on, but underneath they are evil. v 4, 18, 24, 27, 35.

3. Apostates are more hardened, impenitent, wild, wicked, ferocious, indolent, and lascivious. v 36

CHAPTER 48

1. Wicked men get power by deceit. v 7

2. The righteous try to prepare their hearts to be faithful and trust in the Lord. v 7

3. To faith must be added works and preparation. v 8

4. Choose military leaders who do not delight in killing. v 11

5. Trust in God to prepare you for the danger you face. v 15

6. Choose leaders whom God can inspire, v 16

7. The powers of the devil can be shaken if we are like Moroni. v 17

8. The preaching of the Gospel is important in times of peril. v 19

9. Humility is needed by all people. v 20

10. Those who desire peace are sometimes reluctantly compelled to fight. v 21

11. A sorrow for your enemy is a form of Godly love. v 23

CHAPTER 49

1. Satan will always have a counter to good. v 6

2. The proud are over confident. v 11

3. If ye are prepared ye shall not fear. v 22-24

4. The wicked think they can control everything. v 27, Alma 51:10

5. We must thank God for daily delivering us. v 28

6. Prosperity and peace come to those who try to obey the commandments of God. v 30

CHAPTER 50

1. We must always keep up our defenses. v 1

2. Good causes draw good people. v 12

3. Life goes on. v 13, 14

4. The Lord is merciful and just. v 19

5. The Lord will always verify his words. v 21

6. We bring on many of our own problems. v 21

7. The faithful are "delivered at all times". v 22

8. Physical surroundings or circumstances have no bearing on our happiness. v 23 Alma 41:10-11

9. While some people live in peace with their neighbors, v 25, others are at odds with everyone, v 26-30

10. Governments are based on righteousness - peace and freedom are a sacred trust. v 39

CHAPTER 51

1. There are always those that want to change the laws to their own advantage. v 2-4

2. If you have a right to vote you have an obligation to know what your government stands for. v 5-7

3. There are always people who think they are more qualified to run other peoples lives. v 8

4. We all have critical times in our lives when decisions must be made. v 9

5. Evil never lets up. v 12

6. Pray for decisive leaders. v 14-15

CHAPTER 52

CHAPTER 53

1. Good leaders attract other good leaders. v 2

2. Preparation is never over. v 4

3. Numbers don't mater when the Lord is on your side. v 6

4. Preparation is never over. v 7

5. Many times it is our own fault we are in "dangerous circumstances" v 9

6. Covenants made to God should be kept at all costs. v 14-15

7. The youth can feel deeply about their liberty and country. v

8. Don't discount how much help and support the youth can give v 19

9. Higher values - being young does not preclude you from having and being true to them. v 20-21

CHAPTER 54

1. When dealing with the wicked, it seems best to tell it like it is. v 5-14

2. The wicked always make excuses. v 16-24

CHAPTER 55

1. Do not compromise with evil. V1

2. Stratagem is acceptable to the Lord. v 8-18

3. Avoid killing whenever possible. v 19

4. You must be wise in your dealings with your enemies. v28-31

CHAPTER 56

1. Converts to the Church have strong testimonies, and add great strength to the Church. v 3,10

2. The righteous are sometimes killed in war. v 10

3. The righteous that die in defense of their country and their God are happy. v 11

4. When we are doing all we can and become depressed in body and spirit, the Lord will send help from unexpected quarters. v 16-17

5. Preparation is never over. v 16

6. Don't attack Satan in his strongholds. v 21

7. Be watchful. v 22

8. When the Lord is on your side, the numbers of the opposition don't matter. v 34,54

9. Sometimes one false move can bring disaster, while staying steady can see you through. v 37

10. The courage of the youth can be equal to that of any age. v 45

11. It is a great gift of God not to fear death. v47

12. The teachings of mothers can aid their children in their times of need. v 47

13. Mothers cannot teach what they do not have. v 48

14. Sometimes our physical strength will fail us. v 50-51
15. The power of the youth (ie their righteousness) can turn a whole situation around. v 52
16. The youth can sustain and help the Church recoup. v
17. Miracles do happen. v 56
18. God can give you extra physical strength. v 56

CHAPTER 57

1. Preparation is never over. v 3
2. We must be alert to our dangers. v 9
3. Sometimes there are alternatives to bloodshed. v 12
4. Like Joseph Smith at the moment of great despair, deliverance comes. v 18
5. Desperate times require desperate effort. v 19
6. Stand firm and undaunted even when your about to be overwhelmed. v 20
7. How to stand firm - Obey and observe to perform every word of command with exactness. v 21
8. Losses have to be expected. v 23
9. By the Power of God great miracles do happen. v 25-26
10. It's important to have firm minds and to put your trust in God. v 27
11. The Lord will deliver us again and again. v 35

CHAPTER 58

1. Sometimes we are faced with lack of support from those we are depending on the most. v 3,7,9
2. When there is no where else to turn, when you have done all you can v 10, The Lord will give you assurances and bring peace to your souls. v 11
3. Once an answer to prayer has been given, then we must "take courage" and be "fixed with determination" v 12

4. Stratagem can pay off. v 21,28
5. Extra effort is often needed. v 26
6. It's better to trust in God than in governments. v 33-34, 37
7. Great miracles do happen to the faithful. v 39, 40

CHAPTER 59

1. Even great general have their plans messed up at times. v 4,5,8,9
2. Sometimes evil succeeds because of the wickedness of the people who ought to be righteous. v 12

CHAPTER 60

1. There will be no one sitting on the fence in "thoughtless stupor" v
2. You can not expect to sacrifice little when others are sacrificing their lives. v 9
3. You can't do nothing and expect God to deliver you. v 11
4. Trials come to the righteous as well as the wicked. v 12
5. The Lord allows the righteous to be killed so that his justice and judgment can come upon the wicked. v 13
6. You may not think you are directly involved in the death of the righteous, but that may not be true. v 14
7. Division always bring weakness. v 16
8. Watch out for those seeking for power. v 18
9. You are not always secure when you think you are. v 19,22

CHAPTER 61

1. There are those who joy in other peoples pain. v 3
2. Does this remind you of the Anti-war protestors of the Viet Nam era? v 3-4
3. Look for treason in high places. v 7-8
4. We must "resist wickedness even unto bloodshed". v 10
5. We must be submissive to the will of God. v12

6. How to resist evil. v 14

7. Every endeavor must be done in the strength of God and according to our faith. v17

8. The Lord will reveal to his leaders the direction he wishes us to take. v 19-20

CHAPTER 62

1. We receive joy and strength from each others faithfulness. v1

2. Good people will always come to the defence of freedom. v 4-5

3. Strict punishments for treason. v 9

4. After many years of war and many losses we must still retain our humanity. v 16-17

5. The Gospel can be spread even in times of war. v 27-29

6. How do you look upon Teancum's act? v 35-37

7. The wicked are sometimes spared because of the righteous. v 40

8. People react differently to the same situation. v 41

9. At the end of a long hard struggle where you know you were spared by the Power of God, you see riches and prosperity from a different perspective and you are able to resist pride and stay humble. v 49-50